

- What is the vertical profile of snow wetness in these signals? How do they vary spatially and temporally (e.g. diurnally)?

-How does diurnal changes in liquid water content impact backscatter at different wavelengths?